*Fr Gerard Woo Ling
 Assistant Priest*

Dear friends,

Congratulations to the young people from Waterloo who were confirmed by me last Sunday night. I hope and pray they will continue to seek the Spirit in their quest to journey with Christ. A big thank you to the staff of OLMC school for the preparation and welcoming environment that was created. Three adults were also confirmed at the Mass.

I want to acknowledge and thank Fr Gerard and Peter Buxton and the youth ministry team for their work in encouraging young people in our parish. They held a youth seminar last Sunday night at Rosebery which aimed at encouraging and supporting young people to live the Christian way of life. There will be another gathering in July.

Archbishop Fisher has announced that Dr Dan White, Executive Director of Sydney Catholic Schools will be retiring effective from April 2019. Dr Dan White has held the position of Executive Director for ten years. Archbishop Fisher said Dr Dan “has brought intelligence and experience, dedication and Christian fidelity” to the role. We wish Dr Dan well in his move to ‘lesser duties’.

This Sunday I will receive into the Church Justin Wight, at the 9.00am Mass at Waterloo. Justin's story of faith is a long one and he has been preparing for some time to be initiated into the Church. God bless you Justin.

"Smile, say less and listen more, pray, and trust in Me, your Heavenly Father." Such a simple message. It is simple yet profound. We talk about the need for things to change in this world. Smile three times more today than you did yesterday. Say three things less today than you did yesterday and listen to three more people. Pray for three minutes more today than you did yesterday. And trustingly surrender just three aspects of your life, great or small, to God who is your Father.

The world will begin to change when you begin to change.

'The faith of all Christians rests on the Trinity.' [St. Caesarius of Arles, Sermo 9, Exp. symb.: CCL 103, 47.]"

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading Dt 4:32-34. 39-40

The Lord himself is God in heaven above and on earth below: there is no other.

Moses said to the people: 'Put this question to the ages that are past, that went before you, from the time God created man on earth: Was there ever a word so majestic, from one end of heaven to the other? Was anything ever heard? Did ever a people hear the voice of the living God speaking from the heart of the fire, as you heard it, and remain alive? Has any god ventured to take to himself one nation from the midst of another by ordeals, signs, wonders, war with mighty hand and outstretched arm, by fearsome terrors - all this that the Lord your God did for you before your eyes in Egypt?

'Understand this today, therefore, and take it to heart: The Lord is God indeed, in heaven above as on earth beneath, he and no other. Keep his laws and commandments as I give them to you today so that you and your children may prosper and live long in the land that the Lord your God gives you for ever.'

The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

(R.) Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

1. The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted. The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. (R.)
2. With his word the heavens were made, by the breath of his mouth all the stars. He spoke; and they came to be. He commanded; they sprang into being. (R.)
3. The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine. (R.)
4. 4. Our soul is waiting for the Lord. The Lord is our help and our shield. May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you. (R.)

Second Reading Rom 8:14-17

You have received the Spirit that makes you God's own children, and in that Spirit we call God: Father, our Father!

Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father!' The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:

to God who is, who was, and who is to come. Alleluia!

Gospel Mt 28:16-20

Baptise them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

The eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated. Jesus came up to and spoke to them. He said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Participants are asked to gather at the corner of Pitt St and Martin Place in the CBD at 2:30pm. The procession will conclude at the St Mary's Cathedral Forecourt with Adoration and Benediction.
