Assistant Priest

The Parishes of City South acknowledge the Gadigal People, the traditional custodians, who have walked upon and cared for this land for thousands of years. We acknowledge the continued deep spiritual attachment and relationship of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to this country and commit ourselves to the ongoing journey of Reconciliation of this land.

Dear friends,

As you know our area is growing at a rapid rate. The State Government has released three options for the renewal of the Waterloo Estate and is inviting members of the community to comment on the plans. The outcome will result in more people in our parish. I encourage you all to have your say on the plans (just google “Waterloo Communities Plus” to find the Government website with all the details). You are invited to attend a community day, where the plans will be on display and you can provide your views on them, or just have a look, as follows:

When: Friday 26 October 2018, 2-5pm.

Where: Waterloo Green, between Raglan and Phillip Streets, Waterloo.
Free BBQ and refreshments will be available.

With the increased residential accommodation I suggest that more schools, shops, parks and social services will need to be provided.

On Sunday 14 October, Pope Francis will preside over the most awaited canonisations of this year: Pope Paul VI and Msgr. Oscar Romero. The ceremony will begin at 10:00 a.m. local time in the Vatican and will be particularly special because of the context: Church representatives participating in the Youth Synod will be in attendance. Pope Francis will canonise the Pope who faced both new and old challenges: he helped clarify the relationship of authority between the pontiff and the bishops, highlighted the role of the laity, confronted the doubts raised by the sexual revolution and, moreover; he was the first pontiff to travel in order to be seen outside Italy. The other anticipated canonisation is that of Msgr Oscar Romero. He is a symbol of the Church not allowing itself to be bound by its own benefactors. Romero raised his voice to defend those who were politically persecuted and went against the norm. He was misunderstood by some bishops and, ultimately, assassinated. May these wonderful pastors give us courage in our attempt to live the faith.

God bless you...

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

All that you have done to us, O Lord,
you have done with true judgement,
for we have sinned against you
and not obeyed your commandments.
But give glory to your name
and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

Remember your word to your servant, O Lord,
by which you have given me hope.
This is my comfort when I am brought low.

Joey's Kids on Holidays

Please note that Joey's Kids Children's Liturgy, held during the 9.30am Mass at Rosebery, will take a short break during the school holidays. We will resume on Sunday October 20.

Thank you to those that donated to the Catholic Mission Appeal. If you have taken an envelope home, please return your donation as soon as possible.

Our Redeemer is young because he is alive. He radiates life. But if Jesus Christ is gloriously young, then His Body, the Church, is likewise meant to be young. This is the Church our young people want to discover, one that is vital and alive in Christ. Our task is to rediscover this young Church, as a new gospel fire. Marian Month of October

Pope Francis encourages the daily praying of the rosary during the “Marian month of October,” also that it will unite the faithful “in communion and penance, as a people of God, in asking the Holy Mother of God and St. Michael the Archangel to protect the Church from the devil, who always aims to divide us from God and among us.”

I don't want to be an anti, against anybody. I simply want to be the builder of a great affirmation: the affirmation of God, who loves us and who wants to save us.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading Wis 7:7-11

I prayed, and understanding was given me; I entreated, and the spirit of Wisdom came to me. I esteemed her more than sceptres and thrones; compared with her, I held riches as nothing. I reckoned no priceless stone to be her peer, for compared with her, all gold is a pinch of sand, and beside her silver ranks as mud. I loved her more than health or beauty, preferred her to the light, since her radiance never sleeps. In her company all good things came to me, at her hands riches not to be numbered.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 89:12-17. R. v.14

(R.) Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

1. Make us know the shortness of our life that we may gain wisdom of heart. Lord, relent! Is your anger forever? Show pity to your servants. (R.)
2. In the morning, fill us with your love; we shall exult and rejoice all our days. Give us joy to balance our affliction for the years when we knew misfortune. (R.)
3. Show forth your work to your servants; let your glory shine on their children. Let the favour of the Lord be upon us: give success to the work of our hands. (R.)

Second Reading Heb 4:12-13

The word of God is something alive and active; it cuts like any double-edged sword but more finely: it can slip through the place where the soul is divided from the spirit, or joints from the marrow; it can judge the secret emotions and thoughts. No created thing can hide from him; everything is uncovered and open to the eyes of the one to whom we must give account of ourselves.

Gospel Acclamation Mt 5:3

Alleluia, alleluia!

Happy the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs!

Alleluia!

Gospel Mk 10:17-30 or (shorter form Mk 10:17-27)

Jesus was setting out on a journey when a man ran up, knelt before him and put this question to him, 'Good master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but

God alone. You know the commandments: You must not kill; You must not commit adultery; You must not steal; You must not bring false witness; You must not defraud; Honour your father and mother.' And he said to him, 'Master, I have kept all these from my earliest days.' Jesus looked steadily at him and loved him, and he said, 'There is one thing you lack. Go and sell everything you own and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' But his face fell at these words and he went away sad, for he was a man of great wealth. Jesus looked round and said to his disciples, 'How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!' The disciples were astounded by these words, but Jesus insisted, 'My children,' he said to them, 'how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.' They were more astonished than ever. 'In that case' they said to one another, 'who can be saved?' Jesus gazed at them. 'For men' he said, 'it is impossible, but not for God: because everything is possible for God.' Peter took this up. 'What about us?' he asked him. 'We have left everything and followed you.' Jesus said, 'I tell you solemnly, there is no one who has left house, brothers, sisters, father, children or land for my sake and for the sake of the gospel who will not be repaid a hundred times over, houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and land – not without persecutions – now in this present time and, in the world to come, eternal life.'

November Mass Offerings

November Mass offering envelopes are available for anyone who wishes to add the names of deceased family and friends to our November Mass list. The Australian Catholic Bishops Conference recommend a donation of $20. A special Remembrance Mass will be held at the Shrine of OLMC Waterloo 7.00pm on Friday 16 November. Those who attend will have an opportunity to light a candle for all their deceased family members.
